Southern District of New York (2006-07)

Jennifer Permesly helps clients resolve their international business disputes. Her practice focuses on international arbitration and cross-border litigation.

Ms. Permesly regularly appears as an advocate before international arbitration tribunals and U.S. courts in disputes relating to complex, cross-border commercial transactions. She has significant experience in disputes arising in the construction, energy, mining and technology sectors, and with claims involving foreign sovereigns or state-owned entities. A Spanish speaker, Ms. Permesly focuses much of her practice on disputes arising out of Latin America. Her diverse practice has included working with clients to identify and implement global strategies to address litigation, arbitration, regulatory, antitrust, conflict of laws, and internal investigation and corruption issues.

Ms. Permesly has been named in Chambers Global, Chambers USA and Chambers Latin America, and she has been recognized in The Legal 500 U.S. and The Legal 500 Latin America for her skills in international arbitration. In Chambers USA, clients refer to Ms. Permesly as “hands down the most responsive lawyer I’ve ever worked with;” as a young practitioner who is “firing on all cylinders,” and as “very articulate, very focused and very skilled” as an advocate. Ms. Permesly also has been named one of Latin America’s Top 100 Female Lawyers by Latinvex every year since 2016, and as a Future Leader in arbitration by Who’s Who Legal, which quotes sources who state she is “consistently at the very top of her game and admired throughout the profession.” Additionally, she was named to Lawdragon’s inaugural Global Litigation 500 list in 2021.

Recent representations have included:

- advising a U.S.-based renewable energy company regarding its rights with respect to clean energy reforms implemented by a sovereign nation;
- advising numerous companies involved in the development, construction and sale of renewable energy assets in the United States and globally on contractual rights and available remedies, guiding many potential disputes through negotiation to a successful settlement;
- representing a Brazilian aircraft manufacturer in a dispute against a U.S. aircraft manufacturer involving the termination of a multibillion-dollar merger agreement and the termination of a large joint venture agreement;
- advising Vale S.A. in connection with the collapse of Dam I of the Corrego de Feijão iron ore mine in Brumadinho, Brazil;
- representing the Republic of Argentina in disputes brought in the Southern District of New York by shareholders in Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF), the state-owned energy company, alleging breach of contract claims associated with Argentina’s nationalization of YPF in 2012;
- representing one of the world’s leading cellular technology companies in an ICC arbitration in connection with the termination of a licensing agreement with one of its major competitors. The dispute involved parallel patent and antitrust litigation;
- advising a leading U.S.-based manufacturer in connection with a multifaceted construction dispute arising out of a project to expand two processing plants, including assessing claims based on late and defective engineering, cost over-runs, and delay;
- representing Portland General Electric Company in a multijurisdictional dispute relating to the construction of a natural gas power generating station, including acting as counsel in an ICC arbitration involving the guarantor of a turnkey engineering, procurement and construction agreement;

- advising a North American utility company in connection with an anticipated ICC arbitration addressing various delay and cost overrun claims asserted by general contractors in connection with the construction of a submarine cable and its associated converter stations and overland transmission lines; and
- representing a major German automotive company in arbitration involving a billion-dollar breach of contract claim brought by a U.S. manufacturing company.

Ms. Permesly currently serves as an officer on the International Bar Association's (IBA) Arbitration Committee, and previously co-chaired the publication of the IBA's Toolkit on Insolvency and Arbitration to provide guidance in situations where a party to domestic or international arbitration also is subject to insolvency proceedings. The Toolkit won Global Arbitration Review's Award for Best Innovation in 2021. She is a co-chair for the American Society of International Law's 2023 Annual Meeting, and serves as chair of global advisory board relations for the New York International Arbitration Center, an organization she was closely involved in establishing. Ms. Permesly previously served as a term member of the Council on Foreign Relations, a leading U.S.-based foreign policy think tank. She frequently speaks in both Spanish and English on a wide range of topics relating to arbitration and cross-border litigation.
